Your Manzil event

It doesn't matter if the guest list tips a thousand for an exhibition or is just a select handful for your monthly meeting, you can be confident that it will be memorable for your guests.

Manzil is committed to ensuring the success of your event and your designated Corporate Event Manager will be with you from the initial enquiry to planning, delivery and post event evaluation. We understand the importance of budgets and aim to provide all inclusive events with no hidden charges.

There are several options for dining, if you don't want to interrupt the flow of your event then simply opt to eat where you are. Or perhaps if you feel your delegates or colleagues will need a change of scenery then why not join us in the restaurant. The choice is yours.

If you're hosting a daytime event why not stay with us into the evening. Through Manzil's entertainment contacts we can arrange DJs and artists for all tastes.

We're just a short distance from Victoria train station, which is great for your carbon footprint.

We have excellent disabled facilities and make it our business to make sure that everyone is looked after.

Using our sliding wall facility it is possible to offer separate rooms for ladies and gentlemen, for when necessary and a prayer room is also available.

For the larger events our bespoke delegate registration packages can include:

- Delegate registration and welcome packs
- Organisation of pre/post tours
- Arranging off-site events
- Conference literature production

The Manzil team

Our specialist team offers one of the finest services in the city. Refreshments are available throughout the venue and our stunning restaurant allows delegates to enjoy a full buffet service meal. We offer fair trade tea and coffee and will create a menu that caters for any special dietary requirements.

Latest technology

Working with our in-house technical team you will have access to all the latest technology for your event including video and audio conferencing, free Wi-Fi and full technical support.

In addition to the main halls our contemporary and stylish self-service restaurant caters for up to 120 guests and boasts an abundance of exotic and familiar dishes. The menu is laden with an exclusive selection of dishes including meats, fish, poultry and vegetarian options. The salads and accompaniments are the perfect addition to any meal from the buffet. We provide the food; you choose exactly what you want and how much.

Our highly trained chefs have created their own versions of traditional and well known curries as well as adding their own signature dishes, which are inspired by the seasons and tastes from across the sub-continent.

Manzil is 100% Halal and uses only the freshest produce.

Although we have a no alcohol policy, our bar serves a wide range of refreshing fruit drinks and beverages to complement your palate.

We'll ensure your guests leave with a big smile, a full stomach and a lasting memory of just how fantastic the food was.
